

TEMPORARY VISIT FOR PHILIPPINE CITIZENS (MULTIPLE ENTRY)

High-income earner

【Definition】

Philippines citizens traveling to Japan for tourism, business affairs, commerce, conferences, visiting relatives/acquaintances as a temporary visitor.

It is not permitted to perform activities to undertake revenue generating business operations or activities to receive remuneration.

【Term of Stay】

Stay up to 15, 30 or 90 days

【Validity of Visa】

Multiple-entry: 1, 3 or 5 years from date of issue

*The applicant may be required to submit additional documents, if needed. The result of the examination could be a single-entry visa, so it is recommended that you also bring your itinerary, flight and accommodation information.

There is no guarantee that the applicant can obtain a multiple-entry Visa.

【Note 1】

- A multiple-entry visa will not be issued if the applicant does not have sufficient financial means. A condition for applying for a multiple-entry visa is that the visa applicant himself/herself has financial resources.

If an applicant applies with someone else's financial resources, he/she will not be issued a multiple-entry visa, so please DO NOT APPLY.

- Dependents can apply for multiple-entry visas at the same time with principal applicant, using the principal applicant's assets.
- Dependents can apply for a multiple-entry visa if their spouse or parent already holds a valid multiple-entry visa.

submit copy of passport, copy of multiple-visa sticker and proof of relationship

- If the applicant's parent, spouse, or biological child is a Japanese or U.S. passport holder, can apply for a multiple-entry visa.

Must submit following documents:

- Japan or U.S. passport copy
- Proof of relationship (copy of birth certificate/marriage certificate)
- Last 6 months of bank statement or Latest pay slip with YTD amount and the most recent W2 form

- If applicant does not possess a valid U.S. visa sticker, most visa applications will be denied.

After obtaining the U.S. visa sticker, you can apply for a Japanese visa.

If you submit an "Appointment Confirmation" issued by a U.S. Consulate as your qualification for staying in the U.S., the appointment date must be before your first intended date of entry into Japan and the validity period must be within three months of the date of your Japanese visa application.

*As an exceptional itinerary, if you are traveling from the U.S. to Japan and will receive a U.S. visa at a U.S. Consulate during or after your stay in Japan, your visa application will be accepted.

- If you submit your upcoming travel plans(flight and hotel reservations), your single-entry visa application may be accepted even if your multiple-entry visa application is NOT ACCEPTED.

If those reservations are not provided, your passport will be returned and then you will apply for a JAPAN eVISA online, if you still need Japan visa.
